

PRESS RELEASE

THEVENOT PARTNERS ramps up its partnership of distressed companies with a sixth judicial administrator

Paris, 22 March 2018 – A leading judicial administration firm, THEVENOT PARTNERS is strengthening its positioning and action alongside distressed companies in France. Having recently increased its number of judicial administrator staff to five through its partnership with the firm headed by Vincent Gillibert in Marseille, with H el ene Charpentier sworn in on 8 February 2017 this number now stands at six.

"It is standard practice for us to support our employees' career development up to the level of judicial administrator. All of the firm's partners have followed this path and we are delighted that this now includes H el ene", explained Christophe Thevenot, THEVENOT PARTNERS' founding partner. "Our team, founded on solid professional expertises and skills and united by the values of independence and excellence, is a key asset in the service of companies and company directors."

Employed by the firm since July 2013, H el ene Charpentier has a finance degree from HEC Paris, a business law research masters 2 degree from Paris-II Panth eon-Assas University and a Legal Profession Certificate of Aptitude (CAPA). She has worked on M&A for seven months in New York as well as in the Paris office of a leading English law firm. She has assisted a number of large companies at THEVENOT PARTNERS including Matsuri, Ventilo, Altis Semiconductor, Viadeo and Necotrans.

Establishment at the Nanterre Commercial Court

"Our positioning as a general high value added law firm working across all business sectors and with companies of all sizes to implement assistance or judicial administration measures for distressed companies represents a major asset for successfully completing the assignments entrusted to us", commented H el ene Charpentier. "This approach is an assurance of quality and support for the companies that we help to overcome difficulties."

Press contact:

ENDERBY – Franck Moulins – fmo@enderby.eu - +33 (0)1 83 64 71 79

www.thevenotpartners.eu

Always committed to providing companies with the best possible support, THEVENOT PARTNERS recently entrusted its new partner with the job of opening a new office in Ile-de-France, at the Nanterre Commercial Court. In the coming weeks, this should give it a new anchor point that brings it closer to its client companies.

"This new site is not about broadening our territorial coverage", explained Christophe Thevenot. "It is part of our collective plan, under which having a presence in the main decision-making centres makes it possible in particular to provide firms and courts with the responses best suited to their needs."

THEVENOT PARTNERS now comprises around 30 professionals, including six judicial administrators.

Biography:

H el ene Charpentier, 31, joined SCP Thevenot Perdereau after qualifying and has worked exclusively for the firm since then. In early 2018, she became a partner of the firm, which has operated as THEVENOT PARTNERS since the end of 2017.

Employed by the firm since July 2013, H el ene Charpentier has a finance degree from HEC Paris, a business law research masters 2 (formerly DEA) degree from Paris-II Panth eon-Assas University and a Legal Profession Certificate of Aptitude (CAPA). She passed her judicial administrator aptitude exam in 2017.

H el ene is a member of the AJR, the ASPAJ, the IFPPC and INSOL Europe and works in both French and English.

About THEVENOT PARTNERS

Created in 1997 by Christophe Thevenot, THEVENOT PARTNERS provides the full range of judicial administration services. Operating under court authority, the firm has helped distressed domestic and international companies of all sizes within the framework of both acknowledged or court-approved amicable settlements and safeguard, recovery or disposal plans.

It operates with a 30-strong team – including the six judicial administrators Christophe Thevenot, Aur elia Perdereau, Bertrand Mani ere, Jonathan El Baze, Vincent Gillibert and H el ene Charpentier – from offices in Paris, Nanterre, Nantes, Marseille, Aix-en-Provence and Manosque.